City gives recognition to Lady Conquerors

Members of the Lady Conquerors Basketball Team from Community Baptist School in Reidsville were honored by the Reidsville City Council on Tuesday, March 12, 2019 at the Council meeting at Reidsville City Hall after the team won the school's first State title. The following proclamation was read by Mayor Jay Donecker and presented to Coach Kristin Billingsley, Athletic Director Collin Paschal and members of the team:

CERTIFICATE OF RECOGNITION

WHEREAS, the Lady Conquerors Basketball Team, led by Head Coach Kristin Billingsley, captured Community Baptist School's first ever State Championship Title in the school's history in any sport with its victory over Winston-Salem Christian School on February 23, 2019; and,

WHEREAS, the Lady Conquerors were the underdogs throughout the tournament, coming from behind in the quarter-final, semi-final and championship games to claim the Carolina Athletic Association for Schools of Choice Central Carolina-East State title, exhibiting outstanding athletic ability and resilience and bringing pride and recognition not only to Community Baptist School but also to the City of Reidsville and its citizens; and,

WHEREAS, in true David and Goliath fashion, the team lived and played by their motto to “pick up your rocks, trust in God and GO TO WORK” and the school verse, Romans 8:37: “Nay, in all these things, we are MORE than Conquerors through Him that loved us”;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Mayor Jay Donecker, on behalf of the Reidsville City Council, do hereby extend our congratulations to the Reidsville Community Baptist Lady Conquerors Basketball Team and the coaching staff, wishing them future success in all their endeavors, both on and off the court.

This the 12th day of March, 2019.

John M. “Jay” Donecker VMD, MS
