

City of Reidsville Press Release – Release Date April 10, 2019

City Council honors Rockingham Rage

The Reidsville City Council recognized members of the Rockingham Rage JV Basketball Team on Tuesday, April 9, 2019 at Reidsville City Hall for winning a national championship on Saturday, March 16. The following proclamation was read by Mayor Jay Donecker and presented to Coach Andy Woodson and members of the team:

CERTIFICATE OF RECOGNITION

WHEREAS, the Rockingham Rage JV Basketball Team, in only its second year of competition and led by Head Coach Andy Woodson, netted the FCHS 2019 JV Boys Division 3A National Championship, beating the SE Cardinals 59-52 on Saturday, March 16, 2019, at Liberty University in Lynchburg, Virginia; and,

WHEREAS, this Reidsville-based team comprised of all homeschooled students competed in the 24-team JV division from throughout the East Coast and exhibited outstanding athletic ability, resilience and endurance, bringing pride and recognition not only to Rockingham County but also to the City of Reidsville and its citizens; and,

WHEREAS, the Rockingham Rage Team holds practices an average of three times a week and competes locally at their home gym located at the Salvation Army on Barnes Street, working on the skills that helped them to earn the national title.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Mayor Jay Donecker, on behalf of the Reidsville City Council, do hereby extend our congratulations to the Rockingham Rage JV Basketball Team, coaching staff, parents and fans, wishing them future success in all their endeavors, both on and off the court.

This the 9th day of April, 2019.

John M. "Jay" Donecker VMD, MS
Mayor
